LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Important Document for Men Who Want Their Ballots to Count for the Right.

An Old Man's Appeal to Young Voters.

To the Editors of the Lewiston Journal:—

There has much been said on the condition of the laboring class, by the Democratic party in their campaign speeches, and I wish to make a few comparisons to show the advantages the laborer and his family now enjoy, over those of forty years ago, and before any corporations for the manufacturing of the articles most needed, and essential for the comfort of the masses, both as to food and raiment. In the first place I will take the factories of fifty years ago, then mostly small, and run by individual capital, and largely by those who had then to compete with foreign manufactures; and were obliged to strain every nerve to succeed in their new undertaking, with very crude machinery, compared with the machinery of the present day, and much of the labor done by hand, especially the spinning and weaving. Then a day's work for a weaver was eight or twelve yards, according to the quality of the fabric, and the agility of the man, as most all was then done by men, and the price paid was from ten to fifteen cents per yard. The hours of labor were from five o'clock in the morning until seven at night, with half an hour for breakfast at 6.30, and half an hour for dinner at 12.30, and then work until seven in the evening, summer and winter, and this was not the worst feature, as at that time, many young children were employed for this number of hours for the year round, and not only this, but if they indulged in any childish sports, or happened to neglect their work in the least, they were unmercifully whipped by their overseers, with a strap about three inches wide at one end, and slit into strings for about ten inches, called by them at that time cat of nine tails, which many boys and girls of that time, now living, will always remember. Then, we had no law to compel children to go to school at least three months in the year, or to compel employers not to employ them more than nine months during the year. Thanks to our legislators of years ago for the enactment of such a law for the benefit of children. We had no railroads at that time to give them cheap excursions, where they could go themselves and take their families with them, at a mere nominal expense, for a day of pleasure. Certainly the public owe a vote of thanks to the Maine Central railroad company, and especially to Superintendent Tucker, for inaugurating these cheap excursions throughout the State.

Much has been said about the extravagance in dress of the laboring class. I would ask who are more entitled to dress, to be neat and clean, and to be regarded with respect than the producers, with the application of improved machinery. A lady now can procure a silk dress for the cost of a very inferior cotton print of English manufacture of 1814 to 1820, when plain, coarse cotton cloth was up to sixty-five and seventy cents per yard, no better than can now be bought for seven or eight cents per yard, and women and girls would work a week for one yard of cotton cloth. Then one dollar a week and board was called good pay for female help in our mills of thirty or forty years ago. Now they make from six to nine dollars per week, and every thing needed for wearing apparel, from one to three hundred per cent. less. A coarse broadcloth at that time was from five to six dollars per yard, and other things in proportion. I knew one man who gave a pair of two year old steers for a pair of thick, clumsy boots that our young men of now days could not be hired to wear. This was in the embargo times.

Let me say to the laboring class that it is large manufactories with modern improvements in machinery, that give us cheap material for all our clothing; and our railroads giving us quick transit and low rates of freight, that give the farmer, back one hundred or one thousand miles in the country, quite near up to the city prices for all of his farm products, and a quick return of cash for the same, for which he can purchase what he may need, and much cheaper than he could on the old-fashioned barter trade of thirty years ago. Let us look at this square in the face just at this time: Our country is in a prosperous condition; all branches of business of every name; the manufacturer, the mechanic and the farmer are all receiving remunerative prices for their products. Let us all who have the privilege of going to the polls uphold such men as will vote for the continuation of our good government and prosperity of our nation as a whole, and not for the men who would by their vote bring ruin and desolation by repudiation of our public debt, the abolition of our banking system, and the abolition of our protective tariff. Now I want to say to our young men who are to vote for the first time this fall, and as it is now two years since we held an election, there must be some two or three thousand, more or less, look well into this matter, and make your decision from principle, and cast your vote for the men who, by their past lives and votes, have gone for the perpetuity of our country's prosperity, and for the welfare of all classes of laborers throughout our land, and not for the party who would unite with those who would have divided our States, and brought on our civil war to perpetuate human slavery, and to hold them as chattels, but make your choice on principle, that in after years you will not have any regret for your first vote.

FROM A DAY-LABORER.

The Kennebec Journal quotes the following from Eben Pillsbury's speech at Cape Elizabeth: "The officers and stockholders of National Banks have a pecuniary interest in maintaining the supremacy of the Republican party so that they may continue to divide the profits arising from issuing paper money, instead of saving it to the people by having it issued by the Government." The Journal pertinently asks: "Is Mr. Dane, President of the Kennebunk National Bank and Fusion candidate for Congress, in favor of "maintaining the supremacy of the Republican party? Is Darius Alden, President of the Granite National Bank of Augusta, and chief supporter of Daniel H. Thing, also favorable to the success of the Republican party? Or is Pillsbury, being a citizen of Massachusetts, ignorant that the name of one bank president is upon the Fusion ticket, and another has a mortgage upon Mr. Thing!"

Tuesday morning early, there was a tremendous shower, in Portland, with thunder and lightning.

THE INDEPENDENT MOVEMENT WELL CHARACTERIZED.

[Waterville Sentinel.]

There are a number of Independent Republicans in Waterville, but they will not vote the so-called independent ticket. As their name indicates, they are Republicans. They prefer the principles of the Republican party to those of the Democratic or Greenback parties. But as independent voters, they claim the right to support those men who, in their judgment, will best carry out Republican principles, from whatever source they receive their nomination.

They do not believe that Mr. Vinton and the rest of the nominees on the independent ticket are safe men for them. Two years ago when the Republican and Fusion parties in this State held principles as diametrically opposite as the two poles, many of our aspiring "independent" office seekers were on the side of Plaistedism—square as a brick. But that is not the worst of it. This year, when the two parties hold relatively the same positions they are not content to simply throw a Fusion vote, but have nominated a separate ticket with the hope of catching the bona fide independents in their Fusion net; for every one knows that a vote for Vinton is a vote for Plaisted. Two facts that may be verified by any one are sufficient to prove the latter statement. First, "The Independent Republican," the organ of the Independents, is under Fusion care, as large numbers of the paper were printed at the office of the Bangor Commercial and sent to Fusion town managers for distribution. Second, although in the columns of said paper the Republicans are roundly abused, not a word is said against Plaistedism.

On the other hand Mr. Robie is a man whom all Republicans can honestly support. He has held many positions of public trust, and in one of the most bitter personal campaigns ever held in the State, not a word has been said against his reputation as an honest and faithful public servant.

[New York Tribune.]
THE MAINE CANVASS.

All the reports from Maine point to a Republican victory there on Monday. The only danger is the inevitable light vote of an off-year. There are undoubtedly enough Republicans in the State to elect their party's ticket by a handsome majority, if they will all go to the polls and vote. The issue is certainly sufficiently grave to make them do this. We are unable to understand how any Republican in the State can fail to perform his duty after the developments of the campaign. Powerful as Mr. Blaine's speeches have been, those of Governor Plaisted and the curious people he has called into the State to speak for him must have done more to arouse Republicans than all Republican efforts combined.

The Governor stands before the people and declares himself superior both to the Constitution and the Courts. That ought to be enough to defeat him. He stands also as the representative of a conglomerate party which is totally devoid of principles, and which is openly seeking success at any price. Surely the people of Maine have the intelligence and the public spirit to do their duty in a situation like this.

While the Republicans have conducted their campaign with great energy and wisdom, the Fusionists have managed theirs in a desultory and foolish manner. They imported General S. F. Cary to pour out his communistic and fallacious financial theories in support of their ticket, and did not discover until he had been speaking for several weeks that he was doing them more harm than good. They sent him away then, but the influence of his speeches could not be excluded with his presence. Governor Plaisted's speeches can scarcely have had any better effect. They have simply shown that all that the Republicans say against him is true. He is an incompetent and unscrupulous Executive, and out of his own mouth is he condemned. The Republicans, on the other hand, have demonstrated by their canvass that they are seeking to place over the State a government of law and order. They have confined the campaign to the simple issue, Shall the Constitution and the laws be supreme, or shall the Governor be allowed to override both. On this issue the Republicans have taken their position in favor of the supremacy of the laws and the Constitution. Governor Plaisted has taken the opposite stand. We do not believe the people of the State are going to sustain the Governor.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The Tennessee Democrats would doubtless be content to see Governor Hawkins re-elected if they could be sure of the Legislature. But their chances of gaining a majority in that body are even less than of electing General Bate to the Governorship. Senator Harris is making a desperate fight to win, knowing that defeat now will probably end his political career.

The Republicans are giving the Democrats in Delaware more concern about the result of the election in that State than they ever experienced before. The Democrats charge corruption upon their rivals, but that comes with an ill grace from a party that has held possession of the State for years by questionable means.

Speaker Keifer opened his campaign with a speech in Springfield, Ohio, last Monday. He devoted himself mainly to National issues, reviewing and defending all the important acts passed at the recent session of Congress. He also approved the temperance laws of the last Legislature. "The Republican party," he said, "should not stand still in the presence of dangerous and important questions involving the Nation's welfare. No party in this day can live alone on the glories of its past history; it must move on with the progressive civilization of the age."

A full vote means a Republican victory; and to obtain it we need the vote of every true Republican. He who neglects his duty next Monday is most censurable. He who discharges that duty faithfully will feel the gratification that follows upon work well done.—Portland Press.

Lewiston Journal: Now no one can mistake or lay aside the issue. To vote for Plaisted is to endorse the counting-out conspiracy. To vote for Robie is to condemn it. Let the verdict be emphatic, so that the people of the country may recognise the fact that Maine is still true to the fundamental principles of a free government.

Philadelphia Press: Plaisted, of Maine, is angry because a Boston paper calls him a "shameless demagogue." He doesn't prove that he is not a shameless demagogue, but is apparently mad at the attempt to make an issue of a truth which nobody denies.

JUDGE LIBBEY AND GARCELON.

"Rust," the Portland correspondent of the Boston Traveller writes as follows concerning the interview between Judge Libbey and Governor Garcelon, at the time of the count-out in 1879:

Some of the Fusion papers have been endeavoring to place Judge Libbey in a false position by publishing deliberate falsehoods, to the effect that at the time of the Garcelon count-out he advocated and endorsed the position taken by Governor Garcelon and his Council, in an interview with Governor Garcelon, before the tabulations were completed. As soon as this charge was brought to Judge Libbey's attention he came out in an open letter to Governor Garcelon, denying the statements in toto, and requesting that the bond of secrecy be removed, and that he be permitted to tell just what happened at that conference; but no such permission has been given him. If the truth were known it would appear that four days after Governor Garcelon and his Council had completed the tabulations for Representatives and Senators, Judge Libbey had occasion to go up to the State Library in the State House, and on coming down the library met Governor Garcelon, who stopped him, reproached him for not having been to see him, and asked him to step into his room, as he wished to consult with him about the legality of their doings. Judge Libbey replied that he had purposely kept away, owing to the peculiar nature of his position, and because he did not want to give any opinion.

Gov. Garcelon claimed that they had been life-long friends, and he wanted to talk with him about these matters, and that what was said should be in strict confidence. It is said that a third man was present at the interview, and it appears that S. S. Brown, a member of the Governor's Council and a lawyer, was in the the Governor's room. After entering the Governor's room Gov. Garcelon took up the cases of the cities they had disfranchised and asked Judge Libbey's opinion as to the legality of their action, and he replied that as to those cases he did not know what the law was; that he had never had occasion to look it up, and had refrained from doing so recently, so as not to be able to give an opinion if asked for it as he had just been asked. Then turning to the 37 towns, whose votes had been changed and overturned by the Governor and Council, the Governor asked about them, and Judge Libbey replied that they came under a different principle of law, and he had had occasion previously to look up the law on these points, and that the action of the Governor and Council on them was wholly wrong and contrary to law; that there was no authority under the Constitution or statutes, nor was there any precedent on which they could base their doings. At that point Councillor Brown withdrew, and Gov. Garcelon paced back and forth in the room and finally stopped by the window, seemingly utterly cast down. He stood in deep thought some time, until he finally expressed great regret for their action, and exclaimed that he was "surrounded by the very devil himself." The truth of that statement was shown by the sequel. That the above is a true history of that occurrence can admit of no manner of doubt, and when it is considered how Garcelon actually felt at the time, and that he finally submitted the questions to the Court, we must do him the justice to say that he meant well; but, being weak, was overpowered by the unprincipled men who composed his Council, instigated by Eben F. Pillsbury, who is now stumping the State for "Plaisted and Reform."

German Classes.

The regular course of instruction of the German classes under the tutorship of Prof. Carl Braun, will commence September the 18th, in the same thorough manner of previous terms, with the only aim of teaching with success, that is to say: not only to teach the scholar how to pronounce a few conversational phrases, but enable him to speak correctly with ease and fluency and read and write likewise, what everybody knows cannot be accomplished in twenty lessons in any language. The instruction of the two advanced classes will be throughout in German. No English is spoken during the lesson of two hours. Each lesson is divided into Grammar, Dictation Reading and Conversation, Writing of German Essays, and reciting of Goethe's and Schiller's poems will be practiced during the new term. At the end of each month the Professor will give a lecture in German, whilst he will enjoy the pleasure and the reward of last year's labor, that about fifty pupils will with interest and ease follow his discourses. Private instruction will be strictly attended to. For particulars concerning terms and joining a new class now forming, apply to Mr. JACOB STERN, Main Street, or Prof. CARL BRAUN, 164 Harlow street.
Now is your time, the language is worth while knowing.

TO OUR READERS.

As an active participation in the campaign henceforward will require Mr. Boutelle to be absent from Bangor more or less continuously, he has temporarily assigned the management of the political column of the paper to other hands. We are fortunate in securing the assistance of Mr. Joseph W. Bartlett, formerly editor of this paper and a journalist of wide experience, who has kindly consented to render us his valuable aid during the present canvass.

THE PROPRIETORS.

ALL EYES UPON MAINE!

The Republicans of every State are looking hopefully for the result of the Maine election. So much depends upon it that we may almost say the destinies of the country are at stake here. The election of a dignified and law respecting Governor, who will maintain a high toned and independent judiciary. is all important, and so is the election of a Legislature which will in turn elect a fair and able Executive Council, and legislate forthe good of all.

But the considerations beyond these most interest the people of the Nation at large. This election has all the importance of a National election. Upon it depends the choice of a United States Senator, and upon him may depend the political character and organization of the United States Senate. That Senate will have before it very important legislation in the interest of the people during the next few years. It will also choose a President pro tempore who could become acting President of the United States in case of President Arthur's inability to perform his duties. This fact in itself is enough to turn every honest man from a ballot which would help Harris M. Plaisted into a position where his vote might affect the whole country. Every Republican legislator will vote to retain Hon. Wm. P. Frye in the Senate, and so far help to maintain good government.

The choice of four members of Congress upon one ticket should be enough in itself to bring out a full vote. The political organization and the legislation of the 48th Congress may depend upon those four members. Shall they be honest, able, industrious Representatives, as the Republican candidates will be, or shall they be incompetent, inefficient, useless Representatives, as Ladd and Murch have been?

These are the important phases of the election which most interest the people who are watching Maine from other States. Upon the issues thus presented depends so much that concerns the whole country that they await with breathless anxiety the returns from Maine.

Republicans of Penobscot county, upon you depends in a great measure the settlement of these important questions; upon you may be the responsibility of deciding the character of the next Congress, as well as the State Government. Let every man do his duty to-day just as if this responsibility rested solely upon him, and there can be no doubt of the result. We will send good cheer to every lover of liberty and good government everywhere.

LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES.

Seeing his Gubernatorial hopes waning, one of Plaisted's tricks will be to trade for legislative votes. Every offer of this sort, and every effort of the enemy to circulate Republican tickets with Fusion legislative candidates, should be carefully watched and guarded against. Plaisted's candidacy for the United States Senate should incite every honest man to labor against the possibility of such a disgrace. Our Senatorial candidates are worthy and able men, every one of them. Our representative candidates in this city deserve the full Republican support; they will represent the interest of Bangor admirably. No man should omit one of these names from his ticket for the Legislature is of as much consequence as members of Congress or Governor, and we can and must secure it by a majority to reverse which will be beyond the temptation of the most vitiated mind.

Harris M. Plaisted boasts that his campaigns are not expensive to him, and therefore he must be a reformer. But the Republican motto is, "Pay your honest debts." They think, for example, that the man who pays for the band music he orders himself, is a better reformer than he who don't.

D. H. Thing is so small an article that the effort to hoist him on the Republicans through spurious and split tickets will not amount to much. But it is well to be on guard against all the tricks of the Fusionists.

The Regular Republican Ticket.

It is all important that the Republicans should carry the regular ticket. It is a good ticket and every name on it is worthy of the place it represents. Here is the State and County ticket, together with the names for Representatives to the Legislature from Bangor:

For Governor,

FREDERICK ROBIE

For Representatives to Congress,
THOMAS B. REED,
NELSON DINGLEY, Jr.,
CHARLES A. BOUTELLE,
SETH L. MILLIKEN.
For Senators,

JAMES WEYMOUTH,
THOMAS H. WENTWORTH,
PHILIP WILSON.
For County Attorney,
FREDERICK H. APPLETON,
For Sheriff,

JOHN T. BOWLER.
For County Commissioners,
THOMAS J. PEAKS,
WILLIAM L. SCRIBNER.
For Representatives to the Legislature,
BENJAMIN B. THATCHER,
CHARLES HAMLIN,
HIRAM H. FOGG.

Every man who votes this ticket entire will make no mistake. He will do his whole duty.

DANE ON SHIPPING.

Mr. Joseph Dane, besides defending the so-called military record of Harris M. Plaisted, in his speech here, undertook to say something wise about the shipping interest. He succeeded only in showing his utter want of knowledge and unfitness for a seat in Congress. Briefly, the facts are that the Republicans have been trying for years to legislate for the restoration of the shipping interest; that all their efforts have been met by the Democratic propositions to admit foreign ships to registry free and on an equality with our own, which would totally destroy our shipbuilding interests; that to-day the Fusion party is committed to free ships and free trade in everything that affects our industries, while the Republican members of Congress are hopeful of accomplishing something, even against a large and obstructive minority, for the protection and encouragement of the shipbuilders of this State and country. Mr. Dane, lacking foresight, is barking up the wrong tree. The Republicans are on the right track and will bag the game which Mr. Dane, in blissful ignorance, thinks he is after. Every man who seeks prosperity knows how to vote for it.

THEY GIVE IT UP!

Plaisted's home organ of Saturday printed despatches from various counties giving the results of Fusion canvassing. These were dubious indeed, and very encouraging for Republicans. Taking their own estimates, we have victory assured.

For example, this estimate says "Plaisted's majority in Waldo county will be about 1,300." In 1880 Plaisted's plurality in that county was 1,532 and his majority 1,510. The best the Fusionists can do with their own canvass is to allow A REPUBLICAN GAIN OF 210 IN ONE COUNTY, or more than Plaisted's whole plurality in the State.

Again, in Cumberland county, this canvass claims that Plaisted will have 200 plurality outside of Portland. The Republicans claim that Robie will have more than that. But, let us concede the Plaisted claim for the moment. Nobody claims that Portland will do worse than before, and almost everybody asserts that it will do much better. The former Republican plurality in Portland was 234. This Fusion estimate therefore CONCEDES CUMBERLAND COUNTY TO ROBIE BY 34, or a gain of eighty-four over the former election. Good enough!

George W. Ladd, you have made a bad record in Congress, and you have tried to falsify it in order to save yourself. But it is too late. Your little hatchet has the mischievous stains on it. You are doomed.

The Biddeford Journal, in giving an account of the late Republican meeting there, says of Capt. Boutelle's speech: "It was entirely upon State issues, taking Governor Plaisted on his own ground and so showing up the sophistry and fallacy of his position, and the arguments he uses to bolster up his weak cause, as to leave no doubt in any candid man's mind that Gov. Plaisted is to-day deceiving the people of Maine in his every speech and, as a speaker said, needs to study the Constitution of the State of Maine. During Capt. Boutelle's speech a gang of Democratic rowdies distinguished themselves by endeavoring to break up the meeting, but they didn't know whom they were tackling for the very initial of Capt. Boutelle's name, C. A. B.; stand for the significant words "can't anybody bulldoze," and the mob soon found the tables completely turned upon them, and kept a discreet silence during the rest of the evening.

LOOK OUT FOR SPLIT TICKETS!

Despairing of electing their ticket in this County, the Fusionists have flooded the towns with split tickets in the hope of cheating enough Republicans to elect some of their candidates. Let every voter be advised, and scan his ticket with great care. The trick consists in printing the Republican ticket with the names of one or two Fusion candidates, and some of the frauds are hard to detect at first glance. The straight Republican ticket is good enough for any man, and it certainly cannot be improved from the Fusion list. Voters should exercise great caution lest unawares they assist a Fusionist to an office which will not rightfully belong to him.

SPURIOUS TICKETS!

All sorts of games will be attempted by the Fusionists to cheat the Republican voters.

They have printed thousands of Republican tickets with the name of Daniel H. Thing in place of CHARLES A. BOUTELLE. These were in circulation on Saturday and Sunday. See that the name of CHARLES A. BOUTELLE is on every ticket.

They have also put in circulation a ticket with Samuel Libbey in place of one of the Republican candidate for Senator in this County. Mr. Libbey withdrew from the ticket, and this is a trick to divide our forces so as to give the Fusionists a chance to elect one Senator. See that every Republican candidate for Senator is on your ticket.

Other spurious tickets are also in circulation, with Fusion candidates for County officers instead of Republicans. Every Republican should carefully examine his ticket, to see that none of these frauds are practised upon him.

Representatives like Ladd and Murch, who are absent from nearly two-thirds of the votes in the House of Representatives, and from nearly all important votes, are unfit for their trusts. Better men will take their places, and Bangor will do its part towards the change.

THE REPUBLICANS IN PENOBSCOT.

The Republicans elsewhere are looking to the Republicans of Bangor and Penobscot County to do their share in overcoming Fusion. They will respond nobly to this expectation. They mean to exceed the fondest hopes of their friends in other parts of the State. They can do this. But they should not rest even there. We believe that we can carry Penobscot County by a handsome majority, and the Republicans of Bangor and vicinity can do a great deal towards this end. Let them strip to the battle, and from early morn until the close of the polls never cease their efforts. Bangor should speak with old-time emphasis against the corrupt and spotted coalition. Remember, that a full Republican vote will set the seal of condemnation upon Plaistedism, Laddism and Fusionism so that it can never be renewed.

CHARLES A. BOUTELLE as a candidate for Congress has done more for the people of Maine, in his effort to restore the duty on hay, and to maintain the protective principle, than George W. Ladd has done for them in two terms of pretended service. A VOTE FOR BOUTELLE IS A VOTE FOR PROSPERITY a vote for Ladd is a vote thrown away.

REPUBLICAN GAINS IN ARKANSAS.

All the despatches from Arkansas agree that the Republicans made handsome gains at the election there, notwithstanding the bulldozing and fraud. The final result will show that the Republicans have increased their vote 40 per cent. over any previous vote. They have doubled their number in the Legislature, and by supporting the Independents have almost if not quite a majority. They have also probably carried two Congressional districts. Well done Arkansas!

Plaisted's "Dear Sam" letter and his double dealing generally have disgusted the honorable Democrats as well as the Greenbackers, and they have put into the field a full Democratic ticket, headed by A. P. Gould, of Thomaston, for Governor. Poor Plaisted will be slaughtered all along the line to-day by men who two years ago supported him in order to help Hancock. His epitaph will be "Died of riding too many hobbies in contrary directions."

MR. GEORGE W. LADD displayed his principle (!) as well as his taste in City Hall on Saturday night, when he publicly advised his hearers to "vote for the devil or anything to beat the Republicans." After that exhibition, those who vote for Mr. Ladd will follow his advice more nearly than they may suppose.

Governor Plaisted stated in his speech here Friday evening, that his two nominations had "not cost him a cent; no, not a postage stamp." This isn't the kind of a candidate to enthuse the Fusion rank and file. They will be apt to exclaim with the elder at camp meeting, who, when a good brother said that he had enjoyed religion for forty years, and it hadn't cost him a quarter, cried with much fervor, "may the Lord have mercy on your poor stingy old soul."

A special effort is being made by the Fusionists to defeat MR. AMBROSE C. FLINT, for Register of Probate. This effort should be sharply guarded against. Mr. Flint knows more about the duties of that office than any other man in the county, and he ought to be elected by a big majority.

Portland Press: The Independent Republican newspaper says: "Now turn to Col. Fred Robie, the candidate of the Republican ring. Does he possess a single characteristic of Mr. Vinton? Not one." Thank heaven for that! No greater compliment could be paid to Col. Robie than the above quoted compliment paid him in the columns of the Independent Republican.

HOW IT IS REGARDED ABROAD.

[Boston Journal.]

We need not tell the Republicans of Maine with how much interest the result is awaited by observers without the State, and how much significance will be attached to it. We have little fear as to what that result will be if every Republican voter in Maine will simply do his individual duty as he had learned it in the light of the just closing canvass. Now, as the public demonstrations and the time of preparation is over, the time for action—for personal, individual action—has come. Every Republican voter of Maine owes his party and his State a duty, which he can only fulfill by exerting himself, by every honorable means, to increase the Republican vote on Monday.

Not a Candidate.

To the Voters of Penobscot County;

A printed ballot is being circulated with the name of the undersigned upon it for Sheriff of Penobscot County. I would say to all whom it may concern, had I desired the nomination I should have presented my claims at the regular Republican convention.

My name is used without my knowledge or consent; I do not desire the office; should I be elected, which of course is an impossibility; I would not accept.

C. V. CROSSMAN.

Bangor, September 11th, 1882.

NO MAN WHO REFUSES TO RESPECT THE LAW AND THE CONSTITUTED AUTHORITIES CAN HIMSELF BE SAFELY ENTRUSTED WITH POLITICAL POWER. HARRIS M. PLAISTED HAS FORFEITED ALL CLAIM TO PUBLIC CONFIDENCE BY OVERRIDING THE LAW AND THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE WHOSE AFFAIRS HE IS SUPPOSED TO ADMINISTER. LET HIS CONDEMNATION BE PRONOUNCED SO THAT IT CANNOT BE DOUBTFUL.

GEO. W. LADD may not be as successful a stradler as Plaisted, but he is a more artful dodger, and every man who wants that kind of a tool in Congress will vote for Ladd.

WHAT EVERY VOTE WILL DO.

Republicans, bear in mind that a full vote will elect FREDERICK ROBIE, Governor, THOMAS B. REED, NELSON DINGLEY, JR, CHARLES A. BOUTELLE AND SETH L. MILLIKEN, Representatives in Congress, and a legislature which will reelect WILLIAM P. FRYE, U. S. Senator. This will be glory enough for one day, but you can do more. You can elect your whole county ticket in Penobscot, and send four Republican Senators to the Legislature, thus crushing Harris M. Plaisted's political aspirations forever.

These results are worth one day's very hard work, and let no Republican halt until the last vote is recorded.

A vote for Ladd and the other Fusion aspirants for Congress is a vote for free trade and reduced prices to the farmer, the mechanic, and the laborer.

PLAISTED AS A CORRUPTIONIST.

During the whole of this campaign, Plaisted has been employed in a defense of his crooked administration. But if his administration has been so weak as to require constant propping, his private political practices have been outrageously indefensible, and he has not dared to excuse them. Plaisted has made no answer to Solon Chase's charges of Plaisted's attempts to buy his influence and his vote with money and with official favor, and thus in his silence he confesses that his conduct has been infamous. If the law cannot overtake him he should be marked for punishment at the polls.

LADD CONVICTED:

George W. Ladd said he voted against the River and Harbor bill.

The WHIG said he did not vote at all on any proposition connected with the bill, and offered the official record in proof of its assertion.

The WHIG'S proof of Mr. Ladd's recreancy was presented six days ago. Mr. Ladd has since been silent. He stands impeached as an unfaithful Representative and a falsifier of his record. Honest men cannot vote for him.

PLAISTED'S THREAT.

Plaisted has plainly threatened another State Steal, and he cannot crawl away from it with all his agility as a ground and lofty tumbler. Here it is:

"The end of it all is that Gov. Plaisted does not regard the notions of the Judges of the Supreme Court as binding upon him, and is ready and willing to discuss the matter. His opponents don't care for the discussion but the man who has his eyes and ears open may conjecture LOTS OF CHANCES BETWEEN NOW AND CHRISTMAS WHEREIN THE GOVERNOR'S OPINION AND THE COURT'S OPINION MAY COME IN HOSTILE CONTACT."

And we know that he approves State stealing for here is his endorsement of Garcelon's crime:

Bangor, Dec. 23. We, the undersigned, citizens of Bangor, believe that the Governor and Council of this State, in the inspection of the returns and tabulation of the same, which have just been completed, have acted in compliance with the Constitution and the laws, and we will sustain them and the constituted authorities of the State, to any extent and at all hazards.

(Signed) Harris M. Plaisted, and others.

Can the voters of Bangor and Penobscot county endorse for Governor one who threatens the peace of the State in advance of the verdict?

Plaisted and Ladd will be especially busy in their efforts to defeat those who have been efficient in exposing their double dealing methods. CHARLES A. BOUTELLE is very obnoxious to the conspirators, and the Republicans should see that his name is on every ticket.

An exchange says that the Fusionists have a good deal to say about Republican meetings being "fizzles." Wonder what they would call the meeting that George Washington Ladd held at North New Portland last week? Ask any Democrat who was there, what it was. Among other things which he said, which disgusted all parties, was the following:

"Gentlemen, we must put these corrupt Republicans out of power. They are taxing us for everything we use. Every match you light and every drink of whiskey you drink is taxed."

THE DEMOCRATIC NEW YORK SUN DENOUNCES LADD FOR HAVING "DODGED EVERY TIME" WHEN THE RIVER AND HARBOR BILL WAS UP FOR CONSIDERATION, AND THE VOTERS OF BANGOR, TO-DAY, SHOULD DODGE LADD.

A vote for Reed, Dingley, Boutelle and Milliken is a vote for the protective system and fair prices to the farmer, the mechanic and the laborer.

Star Route Cases.

THE JURY UNABLE TO AGREE IN ALL THE CASES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. Shortly after six o'clock the jury in the Star Route cases came into Court and reported that they had agreed on a verdict only as to some of the defendants. The Court refused to accept such a verdict and the jury was directed to retire for further deliberation, despite the opposition of Mr. Ingersoll, who held that those persons whom the jury had already found to be innocent should be discharged at once. A recess was then taken till seven o'clock to-morrow morning.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. The attendance at the court room this forenoon was even larger than usual, and with the exception of Stephen W. Dorsey, all the defendants were present. At twelve minutes past ten the jury came into the room looking rather fatigued.

In answer to the usual question from the Clerk, the foreman answered: "I am not as yet directed by the jury to make a report."

The Court—"I do not know but I shall have to administer the common law in its purity when a jury are locked up and kept together without light, fire, or any comfort of civilized society, and so kept until a verdict is reached. I will consider about this, but I will not adopt that course to-day."

Foreman Dickson—It might be proper to state that we are no nearer the conclusion than when our last report was made.

The Court—Then, gentlemen, the time is come to enforce the common law. Marshal, you will take the jury to their room and detain them as other juries are detained until a verdict is reached. The jury filed out of the room and the Court took a recess until two o'clock. The usual audience assembled in the Court room at 2 P. M. waiting for the verdict. The Deputy Marshal in obedience to the direction of the Court, visited the jury and made a report to the Court, stating that the jury reported if the Court had anything to say they would come down, otherwise they would not. The Court had nothing to say to them and announced a recess until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

A Receiving Ship.

PORTSMOUTH, Sept. 10. Secretary Chandler has decided to re-establish a receiving ship at this naval station and the Constitution or Constellation will be towed here for that purpose and permanently moored off the navy yard, between Pumpkin Island and Kittery. Nearly 1000 employes are now at work in this yard.

VIRGINIA.

A Fine Community.

DANVILLE, Sept. 9. This evening John H. Johnston, Mayor, shot E. Hatcher, late chief of police, inflicting what is believed to be a mortal wound. The parties met casually this afternoon and Hatcher demanded an apology for a statement by Johnston that Hatcher had not accounted for fines he had collected. The apology was refused and a scuffle ensued and Johnston shot Hatcher. Johnston surrendered himself and was admitted to bail in $5,000.

LIGHTNING'S WORK.

A Severe Storm.

NORWICH, Conn., Sept. 9. A severe storm passed over New London county this morning, accompanied by lightning. Five men in Yantic took refuge in an ice house and the building was struck and all five were paralized for a time. One named M. Lynch was terribly burned. The lightning struck him on his side and back, tore off his clothes, made a corkscrew track down his leg, passed off at the foot, making a round hole in the top. Still Lynch lives and is expected to recover.

A cow in a field close by was killed, a span of horses was knocked senseless, a yoke of cattle in Franklin was struck and killed, a barn of Luther Browning in Lisbon was struck and was burned, but the live stock was saved. There are numerous reports of trees and fences struck in all parts of the county.

DOES LADD LIE?

When the Rev. George M. Parks was discussing the question, "whether the Republican had been and was a temperance party?" his opponent charged that certain prominent Republicans in Portland were rummies, and quoted Neal Dow as authority; Mr. Dow was telegraphed to, and the answer flashed back over the wires "HERSEY LIES;" perhaps it would not be decorous to say that our gifted representative lies, but he tells stories without a word of truth in them. Hear what he said in Bangor, when he took the chair at the Cary meeting:

We have also reduced the interest on our bonds from 5 and 6 per cent., to 3 per cent., and but for the extravagant expenditures of our Republican Congress, would in two more years, have paid all of our bonds which matured in 1881.

* * * *

We instituted bi-ennial sessions of the legislature, and thereby saved $270,000 in State expenses.

The Democratic and Fusion parties had about as much to do with these two measures of economy as Mr. Ladd had with the passage of the Geneva award bill.

The reduction of interest to 3½ per cent. was first made by a Republican Secretary of the Treasury, after a Democratic Congress had organized without passing any bill on the subject, and he was attacked by the Democratic press for exceeding his powers; and the bill creating the three per cent. bonds was passed by a Republican Congress and signed by a Republican President.

The bi-ennial session act was passed by a Republican legislature, and approved by a Republican Governor, and was opposed by the Fusionists by nearly a party vote.

If called upon to send a telegram concerning these statements we feel that we should be obliged in the interest of economy, to copy Neal Dow's vigorous diction, and forgetting courtesy, simply say—Ladd lies!

A VOICE FROM HANCOCK.

To the Editor of the Press.

The other night I received by mail a sheet called "The National Enquirer," purporting to be printed in Lewiston, but looking to me like an illegitimate child of the Demo-Greenback party, with nothing in its columns that tells me who sends it out to insult honest men, or where to direct an answer to repel the insult thus crowded on unsuspecting people. I am, therefore, forced to use your columns to answer some of its appeals.

It appeals to the working class, of which I am one, and calls them the "burdened taxpayers" and the "farmers hopelessly struggling along under a merciless mortgage," etc., etc., and calls on them to go to the polls on the 11th inst., and cast their votes for "freedom and constitutional government," etc.

I am a laboring man, one of the "plain people" that Gov. Plaisted prates so feelingly about! I am depending on the "merciless Shylocks" (as he terms our monied men) for my daily bread. And I make a good living, am honestly paid every dollar, my taxes are reasonable, and I feel I am wonderfully favored!

My employers are Republicans. My assessors are Republicans, too! And the best to me of all is I am a Republican, and, God sparing me till Monday, I shall put in the ballot box one vote for our gallant standard bearer, Col. Robie, to be one of the 5,000 majority over all!

The Closing Rally.

GRAND REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION IN NOROMBEGA.

Capt. Boutelle Given a Gratifying Reception in His Home City.

ADDRESSES BY CAPT. CHARLES A. BOUTELLE AND ORVILLE D. BAKER, ESQ.

Unbounded Enthusiasm.

The closing rally of the present animated canvass was held on Saturday evening in Norombega Hall, where an assemblage of magnificent proportions gathered and extended an enthusiastic greeting to Capt. Charles A. Boutelle and Orville D. Baker, Esq. It was a grand Republican demonstration and was a fitting close to a campaign which has been characterized in this city as well as in other portions of the State by meetings of almost unparalleled numbers.

At an early hour our citizens commenced to gather at the hall and at the hour of commencement the galleries and body of the house were crowded and large numbers occupied seats on the stage. The ladies, both in the galleries and on the stage, added their welcome presence to the occasion. The Bangor Band was in attendance and played inspiring selections. As Capt. Boutelle and Mr. Baker arrived at the hall, escorted by His Honor Mayor Strickland, and took seats upon the stage, a demonstration of most enthusiastic applause began and was long continued.

The meeting was called to order by His Honor Mayor Strickland and Hon. Lewis Barker was chosen presiding officer. As the manly form of our gallant Councillor stepped to the front he was greeted with pronounced applause. Mr. Barker spoke substantially as follows:

MR. BARKER'S ADDRESS.

Fellow Citizens, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I thank you for being called to preside over this closing rally of the campaign. Its active work is now done. It only remains for a hundred and fifty thousand men to deposit their ballots next Monday. I only wish the hundred and fifty thousand women of our State could vote with us. Democracy with all its crimes would be forever snowed under by one storm of ballots from the pure hands of American womanhood.

Will you allow me to state a personal incident? Forty-three years ago, for the first time in my life, I took a little piece of paper, with printed names on it, and going to the town meeting in my native town, deposited it in a ballot box. Holding it in my hand before starting, I stood considering its meaning, when my good old mother said, "My son, that is your certificate of citizenship, it is the badge of your manhood. The right to carry it makes you an equal partner with every other man in this government. Through that, and that alone, your will is made known to all the other partners, and when all have expressed their will in that way the result clothes somebody with power to represent you in every right you have as a freeman under the government. Whether the man you vote for is chosen or not, you will have been heard, as all will have been heard, and when the result is ascertained the majority will rule." It was the proudest day of my life. The casting that first ballot was the proudest act of my life. I walked to and from that town meeting with a loftier step and a lordlier tread than ever before or since.

For over twenty years I continued to vote, and always with the Democratic party. It was generally the successful party. But whichever way it turned the full effect of the ballot was never disputed, nor the right of the majority to rule denied, until my own party in 1860, outvoted at the polls, refused to abide the verdict of the people. The war followed. It was fought over that question. All others were incidental. The Democratic party took up arms that the minority might rule. The Republican party pinned the ballot on its bayonet's point, and for four years its voice rang out over the din and the roar of battle, "The will of the majority shall be the law for all." The result you all know. The Pilgrim compact, baptized in the best blood of the country, was re-established at Appomatox.

Conquered in the field of barbaric discussion, to which it had invited the Republican party, Democracy at once organized its effort to destroy the ballot by other methods, and for twenty years the struggle has been going on. They have shot it through and through with Hamburg rifles; they have choked it with the tissue ballots of South Carolina, they have hunted it with night riders; they have riddled it with bullets from the shot guns of Kemper county; they have strangled it in the shoe-string district of Mississippi; they have buried it under avalanches of fraudulent votes in Alabama; they have judicially destroyed its sanctity in Indiana; they have defeated it by stuffing the ballot boxes and by fraudulent naturalization papers in New York and Pennsylvania; they have everywhere opposed legislation for its protection, and, finally, in 1879, under the cold, clear skies of New England, where such methods were before unknown, they attempted to stifle its voice and in our own Pine Tree State, by counting out 37 lawfully elected members of the legislature, thereby disfranchizing one-fifth of all our voting people.

For more than twenty years Democracy, with its various allies, has been simply organized crime against the integrity of the ballot. That the attempt to overthrow the very foundations of our own State Government did not succeed, next to a Supreme Court, fearless in the discharge of its duty, the purest and ablest Court in all the land, the people of this State owe a debt of gratitude to one of our Bangor citizens upon this platform to-night, whose clarion voice rang out in the ears of our people, warning them of the coming danger. The great crime of the century failed of its accomplishment and he contributed more largely to that result than almost any other citizen of Maine. The mere possession of the State Government for a year was far short of the object then aimed at. The instigators of this colossal crime were looking to the count of the electoral vote of 1880, and who doubts it would have been declared for Hancock had the Garcelon government been kept in power.

The present contest is freighted with consequences possibly imperiling our future as a State and a nation. It involves the election of four members of the lower and one of the upper houses of Congress, who may hold the casting vote of both bodies, the appointment of five Justices to our Supreme Bench, within the next gubernatorial term, and the probable possession of the State Government for many years to come. But it reaches far beyond all that. Its objective point is the Presidential vote of 1884, to be counted and declared by the Governor and Council to be inaugurated at Augusta next January. With any Fusion Governor in the chair, who could send his endorsement of the Garcelon crime, leaping over the wires at the moment of our supreme peril, and with a Council in sympathy with him, can there be a doubt of what the declared result of the electoral vote of 1884 would be?

The fate of the ballot, then, is not yet settled in this country. Its future is to be affected for good or for evil by the result of next Monday's election. Foremost in this fight of to-day, as ever in the past, is our gallant Congressional standard bearer of the old 4th District, whose brilliant campaign closes to-night among his own people here in old Norombega. Always true to his highest convictions, and fearless and undaunted in their advocacy, with tongue and with pen, I know of no man to whom the Scottish stanza of the olden times can be better applied:

> "There's ane thing, nae twa things,
> That ilka man may know,
> He never fails his friend
> And he never fails his foe."

I introduce as our first speaker, our next Member of Congress, Capt. Boutelle.

CAPT. BOUTELLE'S SPEECH.

As Capt. Boutelle stepped forward the most unbounded enthusiasm was manifested, thunders of applause rang through every part of the large auditorium and it was many minutes before he was able to proceed. This magnificent reception in the city of his residence after the close of an eventful season of campaigning throughout the State could not be other than highly gratifying to Mr. Boutelle.

The speaker, in opening, said he knew not how to express his thanks for this greeting. In going around throughout the State in the active participation of this unparalleled campaign, now rapidly drawing to a close, he was convinced that there was only one Bangor, and that "There is no place like home." The pre-eminence of this campaign was referred to and the important considerations involved elaborated upon. Mention was made of the virtual announcement of Gov. Plaisted as a candidate for the U. S. Senate and the programme was understood to be his abdication as Governor in favor of his distinguished father-in-law, a very amicable arrangement.

The speaker took up the war cry of the opposition, "Maine has but one Governor," and showed it to be a magnificent issue to fight over. Taking this slogan as a text the speaker affirmed that we have more than one Governor, we have six hundred and fifty thousand with equal rights. The maintenence of constitutional government and the upholding of an independent Judiciary are involved in the issues made by the Governor. The speaker then began a narration of the events which, three years ago, threatened the dissolution of popular government in Maine by weapons of fraud. Plaisted's telegraphic endorsement of that iniquitous crime was referred to and the inception of his candidacy was delineated. Graphically was the campaign of 1880 described and its result was shown clearly attributable to the national election then impending. Plaisted's inauguration by the Republican Legislature, while only receiving a plurality vote, was touched upon. Plaisted is now going around posing as a sufferer from ill treatment. The public records show that while under the canopy of the speaker's chair he hurled insolence and contumely at the Legislature and in that same inaugural hurled contempt and defiance at the Supreme Court. Is that anything on which he can appeal to people of Maine as a martyr?

The relation of the Council to the Governor was treated of at length, and the falseness of the position of the Governor was shown with convincing logic. The appointment by Plaisted of his minor boy as messenger was discussed, and additional light shed upon the matter. Reference was made to the various nominations, the principle nominations of Republicans made by Plaisted were with the view of bouncing out other Republicans. The turning out of Mr. Stillwell was alluded to, and a glowing tribute was paid to his valuable and efficient services as fish commissioner. The attempt of Plaisted to oust Col. Spaulding in favor of his own law partner was treated in a lucid manner. When with that Jacksonian thump Plaisted declared the Council adjourned, questions were drafted by the Council and sent to the Court. An opinion was finally given and the elaborate conclusion of the Court was that the Executive Council was right and Plaisted wrong. Plaisted then thought his opinion bigger than the Court. A comparison was drawn by the speaker between the opinion of the eight judges composing the Supreme Court of Maine and the opinion of Harris M. Plaisted. An eloquent tribute was paid to our eminent Judiciary. The Governor had spoken of "abdicating," and the speaker proposed that we all assist in putting him out, and that the funeral will take place on Monday next. The Governor's refusing to sign the warrant for payment of $50,000 of State debt, and $3,000 requisition to Reform School, simply because of personal pique, was spoken of in strong terms. The speaker referred to the spectacle thus presented, and declared that Plaisted was liable to impeachment. There is still, however, one tribunal before whom the exalted Governor, as well as the humblest citizen, must bow and that is the will of the people as expressed at the polls, and the speaker summoned Governor Plaisted to the bar of the people of Maine.

Reference was made to the slanders which, in the last desperate exigencies of the contest, the Governor had made against the Reform School, and also to the threat made by him through the columns of the Boston Herald in which intimation was made that between now and Christmas still more revolutionary proceedings might be pursued by him. These and numerous other events in the actions of the Governor were discussed at length and were shown in a light which could not fail of carrying conviction. The speaker closed with an exhortation to be at the polls and redeem our State.

MR. BAKER'S SPEECH.

Orville D. Baker, Esq., was introduced in an eloquent manner by Hon. Lewis Barker and met with a very enthusiastic reception from the large audience. In opening the speaker said he came to bring words of greeting from Kennebec. In eloquent words he referred to the preceding speaker who on Monday would be crowned with the laurel wreath of Congressional honors. At this, the close of an exciting campaign, the question is "Watchman, what of the night?" From the banks of the Kennebec as well as from the banks of the Penobscot there strikes the glancing sunlight of victory. As the bow after it is bent flies back to the perpendicular so they are flocking back to Republican shelter. The speaker affirmed that questions which lie at the basis of government—the integrity of the ballot, the supremacy of law and the independence of the judiciary—are involved in this contest. Mr. Baker in eloquent language gave a masterly exposition of some of the leading issues of the canvass.

THE REFORM CLUB.

Observance of Their Eighth Anniversary.

The Bangor Reform Club celebrated their eighth birthday of their organization, in City Hall, yesterday afternoon. The house was well filled by our own citizens together with many from the neighboring towns. President Page conducted the meeting and his programme, as presented, made the whole affair one of unflagging interest.

In the opening Mrs. S. C. Palmer, of the Crusade, read the 146th Psalm, the very same which the women of Ohio had read at their first street demonstration in 1874; who was followed by prayer by the Chaplain of the Club, Robert Henry. Brief remarks were here made by President Page, W. P. Perkins, David Ames, W. K. Lamson, John Green, E. B. Usher, S. L. Stevens, F. P. Hall, J. F. Montgomery—all of whom, with the exception of the first named have kept the pledge for seven years or more; Mrs. Crossman, President of the Crusade; Hon. Thomas J. Peaks, of Charleston, and Thomas H. Wentworth, Esq., of Bradford, in most eloquent addresses; A. K. P. Buffum, of Gardiner, and Mrs. Dr. Elizabeth J. French, of Philadelphia, in efforts full of genuine grit; R. W. Dunn, Esq., of Waterville, but a member of the Club, in a speech full of lasting truths and good points; Edwin Kenney, Isaiah S. Emery, Selden N. Dean, Jas. H. Duren, Vice Presidents Thos. Hanover and Joseph B. Ayer in short and pithy responses.

But the crowning appeal of all fervent appeals came from Rev. Mr. Gerrish who, in language fairly soul-stirring in eloquence held the large concourse in their seats up to the hour of six o'clock, and 78 of his listeners wrote their names upon the pledge of the Reform Club. This meeting has not been equalled in grand results since 1874, but once, and then (1878) when Hon. P. T. Barnum's masterly appeal secured the names of 121 of our people to be enrolled. Benediction was pronounced by Dr. J. K. Lincoln. About midway in the exercises Secretary Stevens presented his annual report, which was well received.

AMUSEMENTS.

Gigantean Minstrels.

The sale of reserved seats for next Tuesday evening's performance at the Opera House, will open at the box office this morning. As there is no doubt of an overwhelming house, we advise those intending to go to purchase their tickets in advance, and thus avoid taking position in the long line at the door on the evening of the performance. The company numbers about forty people, and has the reputation of giving one of the best minstrel entertainments ever seen.

Howorth's Hibernica.

On Wednesday evening Howorth's Hibernica will appear in Norombega Hall. The company bring numerous complimentary press references and a good performance and large audience may be expected.

Notes.

The musical numbers given this season by "The Tourists" are entirely new. They play at the Opera House next Saturday afternoon and evening.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Meeting at Lagrange.

Saturday evening Hon. Henry Lord addressed a fine audience at Lagrange. The citizens were out with full ranks and listened with marked attention to the words of the speaker who was frequently interrupted by applause. Mr. Lord dwelt for a time upon the State issues, but the principal part of his speech was devoted to a candid discussion of the protective tariff and its benefits to all our industries. Mr. Lord is a pleasing and forcible speaker and has done an excellent work in the campaign just closed.

At Cherryfield.

A splendid Republican meeting was held at the public hall in Cherryfield, Friday evening, Sept 8th. The auditorium and stage were densely crowded with people, quite a number of ladies gracing the occasion with their presence. William Freeman, Esq., presided, and in most complimentary terms introduced, as the speaker of the evening, Capt. Charles A. Boutelle, who was received with hearty applause. He addressed the people for nearly two hours upon the issues of the campaign, and was frequently interrupted by hearty applause in approval of his presentation of the case. Prior to and after the speaking appropriate patriotic selections were beautifully sung by a choir consisting of Mr. Wm. C. Ricker, Mr. E. R. Wingate, Mrs. F. H. Prescott and Miss Carrie Campbell, who elicited much enthusiasm. On the stage were seated many of the prominent men of the vicinity, including Executive Councillor Campbell, and others, and the audience was one of the most intelligent and appreciative that could be found in our State. At the close rousing cheers were given for Capt. Boutelle and for Col. Robie and Republican victory, and the speaker was warmly congratulated upon his address. On Friday morning Capt. Boutelle, accompanied by Councillor Campbell and William Freeman, Esq., rode through the remarkably beautiful grounds surrounding the latter gentleman's elegant residence. Probably no other private estate in Maine is so elaborately and handsomely laid out in driveways, walks and terraces, with massive beds of flowers and plants, rare and graceful shrubbery, etc. Cherryfield Republicans are wide-awake and will give a grand report on election day.

A correspondent writes from Sullivan: Hon. T. R. Simonton, of Camden, addressed the citizens of Sullivan at the town house, Friday evening, on the political topics of the day in a convincing and eloquent manner, holding the close attention of his audience for an hour and a half. A vote of thanks was extended the speaker for his able address. We shall do better in Sullivan than we did two years ago.

Rousing Meeting at Olamon.

The Republicans held a very good meeting at Olamon on Friday evening. The audience was large and much enthusiasm was manifested. H. M. Sylvester, Esq., of Portland, addressed the meeting in a powerful speech and met with a very cordial reception. At the end of the meeting three men who have formerly acted with the Fusionists congratulated the speaker and said they would vote the Republican ticket.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A SURE CURE FOUND AT LAST! NO ONE NEED SUFFER!

A sure Cure for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Ulcerated Piles has been discovered by Dr. William, (an Indian remedy) called Dr. William's Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of 25 or 30 years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electuaries do more harm than good. William's Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed,) acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for piles, itching of the private parts, and for nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry of Cleveland, says about Dr. William's Indian Pile Ointment: I have used scores of Pile Cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. William's Indian Ointment.

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

A large pile of sweepings and debris, at the Lewiston Foundry, caught fire Wednesday evening, from spontaneous combustion. Mr Lynch, who lives near the foundry, discovered the fire and gave the alarm. Mr Reynold's son set the foundry pumps at work and flooded the dumps before the fire had become dangerous, so no general alarm was given.

A cow owned in Lisbon gave birth to a monstrosity almost exactly resembling a seal, a few days ago. It had a seal's snout and flippers. Large crowds viewed it.

The Journal says Saturday, Mrs Gregoire, a Canadian woman, dropped dead while in the midst of her household duties. The suddenness of her death caused great excitement among her friends, and they suspected foul play. An inquest showed she died of heart disease.

Aroostook.

Mrs. Isaiah Smith, and Miss McGlauflin, of Mapleton, were thrown from their carriage, while riding in Maysville, last Saturday week. Mrs Smith was somewhat hurt but not seriously.

Cumberland

Judges Walton, Danforth and Barrows to whom were referred the questions of law between the Auburn Aqueduct Co. and the city of Auburn, met at Brunswick, Thursday, to decide upon their answers. The decision will probably be forwarded to the parties this week.

Martin Robbins, one of the crew of the schooner Good Templar, of Portland is supposed to have been drowned at Port mouth while taking a boat from Pierce's Island to Newcastle.

Frank Hoyt, of Portland accused of forging a note and leaving town with one of Robinson's teams, was arrested in Waterville, Monday, and brought back to that city.

Knox

Several Rockland gentlemen are associated under a charter granted Gen Tillson and others, for the purpose of introducing a new system of water works in that city, the supply to be taken from a hill about 80 feet higher than Chickawaukie Pond, where a large swamp, on the farm of Capt. Robert Crockett, and in a region full of springs is being excavated for the purpose.

Sagadahoc

A Bath young lady, last Monday night started for California, alone, she was to stop in Portland for a week. After she had left, her mother became nervous about it and concluded her daughter had better not go to California this year, but on some other year, when she could have company. So she went to Boston and presented the case to the young lady and she dutifully returned home to Bath.

The Times says, Wednesday a little son of Mr. Curtis Spinney, of Bath, was thrown violently from a jigger and sustained serious injury to the right side of his head, also two ugly bruises on the side of his face. The right arm and shoulders were hurt badly.

Waldo

A serious accident occurred, Sunday, at Unity, by which a horse was killed and a young lady severely injured. A son and daughter of Mr. Benj. J Woods were riding out, when the horse, becoming frightened, ran until the wagon was overturned and the horse thrown. The lady had three ribs broken, and both she and her brother were badly bruised. The horse had two legs broken and it was found necessary to kill it. The wagon was completely demolished.

Serious fires were raging last week on Duck Trap Mountain, in Lincolnville, and in the woods south of Burnham Village. The fire is supposed to have been accidentally set by blueberry pickers, and at one time was thought to endanger the settlement at the "Trap." The people turned out for miles around and hauled water in hogsheads to protect buildings in that vicinity but the rain of Monday effectually stopped the flames. The Burnham fire was on land near the Howes, Fletcher & Wilcox mill, for which the trees had been lately cut, and the bark, limbs, etc made a red-hot blaze. This burned for several days, but was pretty well under control when the rain came.

Some boys with a small cannon set fire to a barn in Belfast, belonging to Alder than Knowlton, one day last week, but the fire was extinguished before any damage was done.

Washington

The Sentinel says Fires in the woods about Eastport have destroyed large tracts of valuable wood lands. During the latter part of last week the smoke was so thick in the harbor that Campobello could hardly be seen from Eastport.

A most horrible suicide occurred last week. Ezekiel Harrison, of Edmunds, a man about fifty years of age, has had insane spells for some time. Last Monday he started for the woods without any hat or coat and that was the last seen of him until last Wednesday, when some boys being out in the woods came across his naked body, horribly mangled. He had cut the main artery in the thigh, and cut and mangled himself in other places too horrible to mention. The knife was found about ten feet from where he lay, his clothes have not been found.

While a crew of men were at work getting out granite rock to be used at the Pembroke Iron Works at a place known as the "Camp Grounds" the derrick, a very heavy one, fell among the men with a crash, parts of it striking Patrick Wilkinson, Fred Cushing, and Matthew Fallon. Wilkinson was very severely injured about the back and shoulders, and it is feared internally. Cushing escaped with a cut on the head and some bruises, Fallon had his back bruised and cut some.

The Sentinel says Friday, Mr. Loring Rollins and Mr Lyman Gray, went up to the winter camp of Hiram Quimby, to stop the night and catch some fish. While fishing at the outlet of the second Chain Lake, Lyman on looking up toward the head of the lake, saw something apparently about two miles off, seemingly in the form of a short log of wood, say about six feet high and from one to two feet in diameter, going in a northwesterly direction, and with a waving or vibratory, motion. They say it made very rapid progress for nearly a mile and then suddenly disappeared, as they think, under the water. So the story of last winter, has another witness.

EFFECTS OF DRAINING.

The beneficial effects of draining land are here epitomized by one who has had ample experience, and we advise our readers to give it careful consideration. There is scarcely a farm in Maine, some portions of which would not be benefitted by drains to carry off the surplus water, and by an intelligent system of drainage, the productions of many farms would be more than doubled. Drainage has the following effect:

1st. It removes the surplus water and prevents ponding in the soil. It should be noted that, if the drains are used, they should be of sufficient size to remove the surplus water in twenty-four hours.

2d. It prevents the accumulation of poisons in the soil, which result from stagnant water either above or under the surface.

3d. The ammonia is carried down into the soil by the descending rain, stored for the plant food instead of stopping on the surface and passing off by evaporation, or borne away with the surface waste.

4th. It deepens and enriches the soil by opening the ground, allowing the roots of the plant to go deeper into the earth, decaying after harvest, they form this subsoil into surface soil, providing resources for the plant more reliable, and making the same ground better for cultivation for a greater length of time.

5th. It avoids drought, by enabling the plant to thrust its roots deeper into the soil.

6th. The drainage increases the temperature of the soil. In some cases the average has been increased as much as ten degrees.

7th. By securing uniformity of condition for plant growth, it hastens the maturing of the crop from ten days to two weeks.

8th. It enables the farmer to work his land in wet or dry seasons, and insures a return for the labor bestowed.

With our land thoroughly drained we can carry on the operations of farming with as great success and as little effect from bad weather as any business which depends on such a variety of circumstances. We shall have substituted certainty for chance, as far as it is in our power to do so, and made farming an art rather than a venture.

A SOUND BUT UNTITLED WOMAN.

[From the Boston Globe.]

Messrs. Editors.—

The above is a good likeness of Mrs Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn Mass. who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman" as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is zealously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a life-study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely all Ovarian troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down causing pain weight and backache is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1 per bottle or six for $5, and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound can be obtained by addressing Mrs P. with stamp for reply, at her home in Lynn Mass.

For Kidney Complaint of either sex this compound is [illegible] as abundant testimonials show.

"Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity."

All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole ambition is to do good to others.

Philadelphia, Pa. (3) Mrs A. M. D.

A COUPLE OF BOSTON LADIES Discuss WHEAT BITTERS on a Public Thoroughfare.

[From the Boston Globe]

A reporter happened to hear the following conversation a day or two since, between two ladies who were walking on Tremont St.

"Sue, why do people patent almost every thing now a days?"

"To protect themselves in its use and to realize the profits incident to manufacture I presume. To what are you referring, Amelia, particularly?"

"Well, I was thinking of Wheat Bitters. Ma and I have used it for years for dyspepsia and malaria, whilst our cook has been cured of neuralgia and peculiar weakness by its use."

"Yes, I know they are good, Amelia. I know they have cured Mr W. A. Whitney, of New York, 33 W. 21th St., of dyspepsia and nervous prostration, and lots of others too. But what is it you are trying to find out?"

"I want to know what patent there is in it preparation, Sue."

"Well, analysis shows that in preparing wheat for food, the larger part of its most valuable properties is lost. In Wheat Bitters these phosphates are extracted directly from the wheat and preserved in solution with the most approved vegetable bitters."

"What do you mean, Sue, by phosphates?"

"There can be no thought without phosphates there can be no vigor of life without phosphates and Wheat Bitters contains these phosphates in the most beneficial and available form."

"Then the phosphates are the active principles in these bitters, are they?"

"To a certain extent, yes. Chemically compounded they are efficient helps to the rest of the elements in the bitters and the whole form a matchless medical preparation."

"I can see now, how it is that the Rev. S. Blaisdell of Randolph, Vt., feels justified in saying 'under God, we are indebted to Wheat Bitters for the robust health we now enjoy.'"

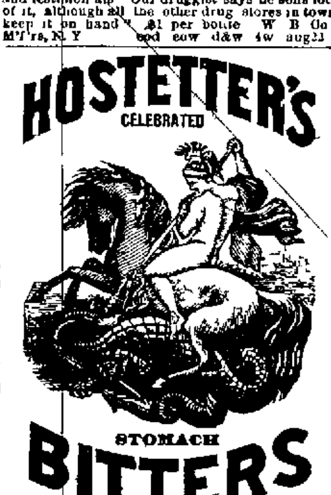
"Yes, my dear Amelia, all persons who suffer with Dyspepsia, Malaria, Jaundice, Biliousness, Languor, Constipation, Intermittent Fever, Fever and Ague, Paralysis, Delirium Tremens, Neuralgia, Female Complaints, will find in Wheat Bitters a sure and infallible remedy."

"And the proprietors patent the remedy in order that they may protect the public from impostors? Is that it?"

"Precisely. A good, A 1, actual remedy for these complaints has seldom been found. The proprietors of Wheat Bitters have just such a preparation, and they don't propose to permit other persons to impose upon the public in their name."

"Isn't the medicine spreading in popularity Sue?"

"Indeed it is, Amelia. The endorsements which it receives almost daily is something truly wonderful. They pour in by the basketful, the letters and testimonials. Our druggist says he sells lots of it, although all the other drug stores in town keep it on hand." $1 per bottle. W. B. Co., M'f'rs, N. Y. eod eow d&w 4w aug23



That terrible scourge fever and ague, and its congener, bilious remittent, besides affections of the stomach, liver and bowels, produced by miasmatic air and water, are both eradicated and prevented by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a purely vegetable elixir, endorsed by physicians and more extensively used as a remedy for the above class of disorders, as well as for many others, than any medicine of the age.
